Learning Together for a Better Future

24/11/17

Trips, training and Shakespearean tragedy were the flavour of this week. I have to start by saying I was blown away by Cherry Class' version of Macbeth in their class assembly this week. They were confident performers who showed a real understanding of a complex story. Their acting, singing, independence and team work were all commendable, and a last minute step-in by Mohammed due to an absence was remarkable. Very well done to all involved. Year 6 were also performing this week at St Paul's Cathedral and I have it on good authority that they, too, were amazing, and what a fantastic opportunity to hear their voices echoing around the dome. Years 3 and 4 went off to the Museum of London this week as part of their Romans topic and four children set off with their bassoons to play in the Tower Hamlets Orchestra Day.

On Thursday night all of the staff had medical conditions training. Part of this was to ensure we all know about conditions such as asthma and allergies and how to administer Emergency Auto Adrenaline Injections should a child go into anaphylactic shock. We also learned how to use our emergency defibrillator. Thank you very much to Dr Tom Margham for answering our pleas to deliver the training.

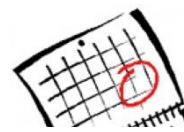

From next week we will be tightening our security - please read the letter overleaf for our new arrangements, and bear with us if we ask you to 'go the other way'!! Have a great weekend, Sharon Taylor-Sezgin

Please bring in your anti-bullying posters on Monday as the school council will be judging the competition on Tuesday.

Our winter fair will be on Friday 8th December from 3.30-5pm. We will need lots of help beforehand with making cakes, samosas and decorations and on the day itself to set up all the stalls and games. We also need clean, empty tin cans (such as those for baked beans) and washed 4-pint plastic milk bottles. Please see Ruth or the PTA if you are able to help with any of these tasks.

Week beginning 27th November

Monday 20th November

Y3 will be taking part in Lessons in Loaf with Cassie, Ali and our guest bakers.

Tuesday 28st November Strengthening Families course, 9am in the schoolhouse – last chance to join the class so do come along if you are interested.

Please see overleaf for important information about changes to arrangements for the beginning of the day
